

PRAIRIE VALLEY NORTH BAND WITH LEGENDARY JOHNNY REID

March Newsletter

Prairie Valley North Band

by Danielle Moore

A few members of the Prairie Valley North Band had an amazing opportunity when they were asked to sing on stage with the legendary Johnny Reid. Reid was in Regina March 16, 17 & 18 performing at the Conexus Arts Centre. Reid donates $1 from every ticket sold to an organization called MusiCounts who provide grants and other opportunities for students. Since our Band had received a grant from this organization a few years ago, they contacted the Band Director for Cupar, Lipton, Southey and Kelliher, Mr. Stephen Folnovic. The students were asked to join in on the chorus for the song "Today I'm Gonna Try and Change the World." Even though our students are not a singing group and had very little advance notice, they took on the challenge and did an excellent job at all three concerts. The students who were involved were...

From Cupar: Levi Harvey, Matthew Mills, and Madison Hayward

From Kelliher: Emily Cooper, Samantha Cooper, and Holly Moore

From Southey: Emily Fuessel, Aislinn Roske and Kalli Scherle

From Lipton: Cameron Norrish, Mitchell Norrish, Brooke Joseph, Carlene Gillis, Jacob Duckett and Abigail Duckett

The audience loved them and gave the group a standing ovation at every performance. Meeting and singing with Johnny Reid is not something these students will ever forget. It was an incredible opportunity for all of them!

Thank you to all who participated in our Valentine Tea + Bake Sale – to our volunteers, bakers, prize donors, supporters, and to Nicky Wagner for entertaining us with her beautiful voice! We raised enough funds to pay for our computer fee again this year. Our door prize winner of the afghan and huge chocolate bar was our very own librarian Ann Lucas!

We will be hosting the Playschool on Wed., March 23 for a story and Easter egg treat hunt. We will be closed on Good Friday, March 25.

We have been giving out lots of free baby book gifts for our local baby boom! Congratulations to our new parents and please be sure to come by the library and register for your free baby book gift for your newborn if we have overlooked you!

If you have a favorite local author, please let us know so we can look into booking him/her for an author reading/visit. We are looking into another Kids' Baking Night for the summer/fall, but it will be on a PRE-REGISTERED, LIMITED NUMBER basis only, due to the popularity and limited space. Look for future details.

We have returned a Rec Board grant to help the Pool Renos for this year. We value the pool and are glad to help in our community.

For any inquiries, please visit us on Wednesdays and Fridays from 10:30-5, at the Legion Hall (219 Stanley St); or by phone (306-723-4749), or email

Mayor

Currently we have an interim Mayor as Len Kallichuk has stepped back. Until the new elections in October, Gloria Woodward will be the acting Mayor. As the elections approach now is the time to think about running and getting out there to see what you can do to represent your Town. We have 7 spots available for Council and will be looking for nominations very soon. We look forward to seeing everyone step forward and letting their name come forward for the elections.

Biodegradable bags

This spring the mandatory biodegradable bags are being implemented. All bags left for pick-up that contain leaves or grass clippings MUST be in biodegradable bags. Any bags that are left that are not in the appropriate bags will be left for the homeowner to dispose of. If you are not using biodegradable bags, please put them in your grey bin to be picked up every Wednesday or feel free to take them out to the transfer site yourself where you will have to split them open and dump them.

Utility bills

Utility bills come out every month and are due at the month of that billing. Water meter reads will now occur every two (2) months as it will be easier for residents who use more water to pay their overages. If you receive a red card on your door, please return the card filled in with your meter read and your name and/or address to the town office.

Pet Licenses

Pet licenses are now due at the Town Office for the 2016 calendar year. Neutered pets are a cost of $10 per animal and non-neutered pets are $50 per animal. Please visit our website to view the Pet Bylaw in its entirety.

Closed for Easter

Please note the Town Office will be closed Monday, March 28th for Easter. We apologize for any inconveniences this may cause.
